VISUAL ARTS EXHIBITION

Extended until 30 November

OUT OF SIGHT OUT OF MIND

Artwork by Adam Janali 'Ozala'

Ozala is a Hazara refugee from Afghanistan. For three and half years Ozala waited in detention centres for his claim for asylum to be approved. Unable to communicate to the outside world, he began painting and drawing political cartoons and caricatures to express his suffering. Don't miss this powerful insight into one man's struggle for freedom.
