SWING THAT THING 9 January

Swing through some Frank Sinatra or get all fired up with some Joe Williams with music by Adam Hall and the Velvet Playboys. Playing the musical styles of jazz, jump, swing, rhythm and blues, groove and soul this band loves to have some fun!

Joined by the Perth Swing Dance Society performance troupe - the Hullabaloo Hoppers who perform vibrant floorshows showing how swing was danced in the 1920s, 30s and 40s.

BRAZILIAN BEACH PARTY 23 January Hall's Head Beach, Hall's Head Beach, Mandurah

Plunge into a carnival of non-stop fun and games with high energy Capoeira, Brazilian percussion, DJ's, twister and hula hoops, activities and much more.

Capoeira combines dancing, fighting and music in a beautiful blend of singing, drumming, flowing kicks and spins. The group places a large emphasis on street culture and public expression.

ISLAND RHYTHMS & AFRICAN BEATS 6 February

The Seychelles Band will take you away on an exotic journey through a mix of Creole cultural music with influences from, Europe, Africa, India, China and the Caribbean with popular rhythms and dance from the Creole islands of the Indian Ocean.

Joined by WAADA (WA African Drumming Associates) an African percussion and dance group performing traditional rhythms using djembe, congas, shakers and other instruments.

WAADA promote peace, love and unity through dance, rhythm and song.

WEST AUSTRALIAN MADE 20 February

Sing, hum or tap your feet to the infectious songs of the Yowarliny Singers performing their own style of Indigenous music with influences from reggae, country, gospel and soft rock. The word 'Yowarliny' comes from the language of the Noongar people of the Bibbulmun Nation and means to sing out.

EUROPE & BEYOND 6 March

Kashtany Duo play the traditional music of Eastern Europe, Israel and the Gypsies. The vibrant virtuoso performances of Myroslav Gutej on accordion and Paul Wright on violin add zest and energy to a tumultuous array of talent and music. Cameo spots by the elegant dancer Ivanna Mayorenko will be a special feature of this passionate performance.

HARMONY WEEK – CHINESE CULTURE 20 March 1pm – 3pm

Immerse yourself in harmonious Chinese culture with the Chung Wah Association of WA. This event will feature many diverse performances from elegant traditional dance and song to robust drumming and lion dancing. The Chung Wah Association aims to share the richness of Chinese culture with the wider community and highlight the multicultural uniqueness of Western Australia.
